Shifting of Salt Commissioner's Office to Gujarat

1786. SHRIMATI ANANDIBEN JETHABHAI PATEL: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact tht 70% of salt is produced in Gujarat and supplied throughout the country;

(b) whether there is a demand for shifting the Salt Commissioner's office to Gujarat in order to see the production and supply of salt in the State;

(c) whether the arrangement for the supply of wagons for the supply of salt is adequate in Gujarat as per the demand; and

(d) if not, the steps Government propose to take towards early shifting of Salt Commissioner's Office in Gujarat to oversee the railway wagon allotment as per the demand?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) Yes, Sir. Gujarat contributes about 70% of the total salt produced in the country.

(b) There had been a consistent demand from the Govenment of Gujarat, Salt Manufacturers' Associations of Gujarat, etc. for shifting the Salt Commissioner's Headquarters Office to Gujarat.

(c) Yes, Sir. At present there has been adequate supply of wagons for movement of salt from Gujarat.

(d) The Government had ordered for shifting of the Salt Commissioner's Headquarters Office to Gandhinagar (Gujarat) in October, 1994. However, the All India Salt Department Employees' Union filed a Writ Petition in the Rajasthan High Court against the said orders and obtained a stay. The matter is now pending before the Hon'ble High Court and is, therefore, subjudice.
